

SHALOM POINT TEAM

MS. RIVKA ELIRON
SENIOR ADVISER

Rivka Eliron is a remarkable individual with a multifaceted life journey. As a devoted mother of six children, she embodies the essence of family and nurturing. Beyond her role as a mother, Rivka is widely recognized for her expertise as a Hebrew lecturer, a role she has undertaken in various educational settings. Her commitment to fostering excellence in Hebrew education extends to her work as a guide for Hebrew teachers, representing the Ministry of Education in Israel.

In her academic pursuits, Rivka has achieved a milestone by earning a master's degree in Jewish studies, a testament to her dedication to her cultural heritage and scholarly interests. However, her talents and interests extend beyond the classroom. Rivka finds joy in the world of performing arts, actively participating in acting and dancing as cherished hobbies.

At Shalom Point, we are thrilled to welcome Rivka, a multifaceted individual whose passion for Hebrew education, love for her family, academic accomplishments, and artistic endeavors enrich our community in countless ways.