

Israel Orientation (Cultural-Based) Syllabus

Objective: To provide a comprehensive cultural and sociological orientation for evangelical Christians visiting Israel, helping them understand and navigate local customs, manners, basic Hebrew skills, and identifying different groups of Israeli society.

Duration: 4 hours (3 sessions with short breaks)

Fee: 45 SGD per participant with a minimum of 20 participants

Location: Shalom Point's offices or client's place (flexible)

Special Offer: For first-time bookings, please contact us via email for a special offer: info@shalompoint.com

Discount Eligibility: Organizations booking Israel Orientations with Shalom Point are eligible for discounts.

Donations: Shalom Point is happy to donate to organizations booking Israel Orientations with us.

Session 1: Introduction to Israeli Society

- Overview of Israeli history, politics, and culture
- Understanding the diversity of Israeli society
- Basic Hebrew skills and phrases
- Identifying different Jewish groups by the way they dress and talk
- Do's and don'ts in Israeli culture

Session 2: Navigating Israel's Local Customs and Manners

- Social and business customs

- Interacting with locals
- Understanding Israeli humor and sarcasm
- Food and dining etiquette
- Holidays and celebrations in Israel

Session 3: Current Events in Israel and Economics

- Understanding the news in Israel
- Economic aspects such as prices, payments, and tipping
- How to shop in Israel and bargain
- Personal stories and experiences from the instructor
- Q&A and simulations

Note: The syllabus can be further customized based on the specific needs and interests of the organization. Additional topics such as religious sites, historical landmarks, and cultural activities can be incorporated upon request.

By providing this Israel Orientation program, participants will gain a deeper understanding of Israeli society, customs, and etiquette, enabling them to have a more immersive and meaningful experience during their visit. Shalom Point offers flexible locations for the sessions, either at their offices or at the client's place, ensuring convenience and accessibility for the participants.

For further inquiries or to schedule an orientation, please contact Shalom Point directly via email. Let us help you make your visit to Israel a truly enriching and memorable experience! We are excited to discuss the special offer and donation opportunities with your organization.