

SHALOM POINT

TEAM

HERUT DAVIDSON

HEBREW ACADEMY

Herut Davidson is an esteemed educator and passionate advocate for the Hebrew language. With a bachelor's degree in humanistic studies from Shalem College in Jerusalem, specializing in Middle Eastern and Arabic studies, she brings exceptional academic achievements and a dedication to excellence to her role.

Having discovered her love for teaching Hebrew during her national service in 2016, Herut embarked on a fulfilling teaching journey. In 2022, she ventured into online teaching, focusing on personalized Hebrew instruction for older new immigrants. Her tailored approach, catering to each student's unique needs and interests, has been pivotal in fostering their development and ensuring success in language acquisition.

In 2023, Herut had the honor of becoming an esteemed instructor at the Jewish Agency's Gap Year program. Teaching diverse courses to young people from around the world, she shared her knowledge and enthusiasm for the Hebrew language. Herut fostered an engaging and dynamic learning environment, promoting cultural exchange and personal growth. Her teaching transcended language skills, instilling a deep appreciation for Hebrew's rich history, literature, and cultural significance.

At the core of Herut's teaching philosophy is personalization. She adapts lessons and materials to suit each student's individual needs and interests, aiming to provide an optimal learning experience. Her commitment to tailoring content and methodology ensures that every learner receives an education that resonates personally.

As a private Hebrew teacher at Shalom Point, Herut is an invaluable asset. Her exceptional academic background, diverse teaching experience, and dedication to personalized education enhance our community. Her expertise in Middle Eastern and Arabic studies enriches her understanding of Hebrew and its cultural context. We are confident that her passion, knowledge, and ability to create an engaging learning environment will inspire and empower our students.

We warmly welcome Herut to Shalom Point. Her outstanding qualifications and commitment to fostering a deep appreciation for the Hebrew language make her a highly respected educator. We anticipate the positive impact she will have on our students' language acquisition and cultural understanding, and we are grateful to have her as part of our team.